

2024 Arizona Housing Coalition Award Winner

Andrea Popejoy

McKinney-Vento Liaison of the Year

We honor a McKinney-Vento homeless school liaison who has demonstrated exemplary efforts to assist students and families in her district. In her role as Homeless Liaison Officer (HLO) at the Arizona Agribusiness and Equine Center, Andrea Popejoy has exemplified an extraordinary dedication to swiftly and effectively providing crucial resources to the homeless community. Assigned to Patrol and various critical assignments, Andrea's unwavering efforts align seamlessly with the mandates of the McKinney-Vento Act.

"Andrea Popejoy's steadfast commitment to upholding the principles of the McKinney-Vento Act has profoundly impacted the lives of those experiencing homelessness in our community," remarked Patrick Wellert, Principal for the AAEC-Prescott Valley. "Her tireless dedication not only fulfills the requirements of the Act but also goes above and beyond, creating a nurturing and supportive environment for these vulnerable individuals."

Andrea's compassionate service deserves the utmost appreciation and recognition for the positive difference she continues to make in the lives of those in need.

