Employment Opportunity: Communications Manager

Description: The Arizona Housing Coalition is a statewide organization - a collaborative association that leads in the efforts to end homelessness and advocate for safe, affordable homes for all Arizonans. We seek a creative and skilled professional to coordinate and implement communications across our organization to support events, advocacy campaigns and public awareness.

The Communications Director will work closely with the Coalition team on multiple projects and will be expected to take initiative to both lead and support the team.

Salary range is $48,000 to $53,000.

Essential Responsibilities:

- Collate and disseminate information on local, state, and federal best practices in affordable housing and homeless services, legislation of impact, and issues of concern to interested stakeholders.

- Manage website (Weebly) and social media (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram) content—ensuring new and consistent information (article links, stories and events) is posted regularly for the Arizona Housing Coalition and Arizona StandDown.

- Create collateral materials related to the Coalition, including events and communication pieces, invitations and programs, monthly online newsletters, weekly info posts, and annual report.

- Measure performance of digital marketing efforts using a variety of web analytics tools (Google Analytics, WebTrends, etc.).

- Coordinate and maintain a communications calendar for the Coalition.

- Serve as initial contact for media and issue press releases.

- Implement best practices for database hygiene and work with staff to ensure database (EveryAction) is being maintained in accordance with best practices.
VISION
Every Arizonan has a safe, affordable place to call home.
